dmxusbpro version 1.4
Max5 (Windows and Mac OS X)
by Olaf Matthes

By using this software you are agreeing to the software license at the end of this document.

System Requirements & Installation:

This software is for use with Max5. The Windows version requires the Virtual-COM-Port (VCP) Driver and not the FTD2XX driver!

To use the object you need a driver to be installed for the DMX USB Pro Interface (http://ftdichip.com/Drivers/VCP.htm). The drivers are not included in this distribution. Please refer to the corresponding driver readme files for further information on driver installation! Without an installed driver the dmxusbpro object will not work!

Copy the object (dmxusbpro.mxe from the build-win directory or dmxusbpro from the build-mac directory) into the externals folder of your Max distribution (under 'Common Files' on Windows). Copy the help patch (dmxusbpro.help) into the max-help folder of your Max distribution.

Usage:

dmxusbpro is used to send or receive DMX512 data using the DMX USB Pro Interface from ENTTEC. The desired refresh rate and DMX StartCode can be set and up to 512 DMX channels (aka 'slots') can be controlled.
Detailed information how to use this external can be found in the help patch or the manual.

The dmxusbpro web page, from which these objects may be downloaded, is located at:

http://www.nullmedium.de/dev/dmxusbpro/

Please e-mail any bug reports or suggestions to Olaf Matthes (olaf.matthes@gmx.de).

Detailed information about the DMX USB Pro Interface is available from the ENTTEC website at http://www.enttec.com/dmxusb_pro.php.

Enjoy!
